KIRK WRITES AGAIN

IS EXPERIENCING ALL THE DELIGHTS OF AUTUMN
"BACK EAST"

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 9, 1915.
Dear "News":

"The frost is on the pumpkin" for sure! The past few mornings in Nebraska have taken me back to my boyhood days, and given me "a touch of high life," so to speak. But the tang in the air does make a man's blood run quicker, and does put ginger and life into him as nothing else can. If all the weather in Nebraska were like this, and there was no more cold, wind or storm than is experienced in these frosty days, I wouldn't want any better climate. They are just such as the state needs right now, to stop the growth of the late corn and to give the farmers a chance to thresh their wheat, for which they have been waiting for weeks. A ride on the train out through the state, such as I have been making this week, shows threshing outfits to be very thick, and three or four can frequently be sighted from one spot.

They tell me it has been a most unusual summer, with practically no hot weather. The rainfall from May 1st to October 1st has been from 25 to 30 inches throughout the state, not so great a quantity, but scattered so as to make it almost a daily occurrence. People say that if every summer was like this it wouldn't be necessary for them to go to Colorado or California at all.

The City of Lincoln is boasting that, according to population, its building operations for this year have led practically the entire country. Many new homes are under construction and school buildings and business blocks are going up. The government is building an addition to the Lincoln postoffice building, which will about double its capacity.

Miller & Payne's new building of eight stories is a thing of beauty. The immense plate glass windows in this building are the largest I have ever seen. Several panes of them are about 25x10 feet in size and held in place by narrow strips of copper which appear altogether inadequate. I had a pleasant chat with Mr. Johnny Miller, who looks a little thin and overworked, but Dr. Paine looks as natural as can be, and is the same kind, unpretentious man he always was. He is now regarded as about the wealthiest man in Lincoln.

My old friend, Sam Hudson, who has been on the road for Paxton & Gallagher company of Omaha for many years, is being boosted for the postmastership of Lincoln. "Sam" has the endorsement of Mr. Bryan, but he seems to have a hard fight on his hands.

I ran up to Wahoo for a few hours a week ago. This town is celebrated as the home of "Wahoo Sam Crawford," battling partner of the great Ty Cobb. Elmer Johnson, Sam's brother-in-law, was an old customer of mine and still has a good clothing store there. Judge Reese, former chief justice of the Nebraska supreme court, used to live in Wahoo. The old judge is still in action, despite his years.

I had the pleasure of witnessing a varsity football game once more last Saturday afternoon. Nebraska outclassed Drake, her opponent, but I was nevertheless carried back to the old days when I was regarded a king of rooters for this great hair-raising game. Any fellow who can see a husky, corn-fed football warrior break through the line and shake off all his tacklers for a long run and touchdown, especially in this crisp October air, without feeling a thrill such as comes to him in no other game, well, I'm afraid he hasn't very much good red blood.

The number of fine autos in Lincoln would be a revelation to an old timer who hadn't been here for a few years. They are hurting the street car business, which was never very good at best. There seems to be a much smaller proportion of old and cheap motor cars than we have in California. The parking of these machines in the middle of the streets instead of at the curbs in Lincoln and Omaha is an innovation which may be worth imitating.

All of the different organizations of the dry forces of Nebraska got together in a big convention here the other day, elected Mayor Charlie Bryan chairman and had the most enthusiastic, harmonious time imaginable. These forces are very strong and the State Journal, which keeps mighty close tab on the politics of the state thinks they have the finest kind of a chance to carry the state for prohibition next year. I think there is no doubt about it. Old King Booze will soon be chased out of all these western states into California, and then we'll shove him out into the Pacific ocean and drown him.

SEQUEL TO ROMANCE

HEART-SICK LADY GOES TO MONTANA TO HUNT MAN WHO DESERTED HER

What is likely to prove the conclusion of a romance which began some time ago has been initiated by the departure without warning to Montana of a well-known Glendale lady who is suffering the pangs of despondency and betrayed love and confidence. Word came to this party at first about the time of the Elk convention that her husband, the husband of a few short months, had been seen in Montana where he was occupying a good position and earning a comfortable salary.

Immediately on receipt of this news the lady set out for Montana, it is believed, and has not returned as yet. It will be remembered that the desertion took place at San Bernardino, where the couple were staying at the time. The husband had met the Glendale lady casually, it is stated, and had conceived the idea of marrying her, having heard that she was well-to-do. The lady, equally infatuated, and believing that she was about to wed a man of means, gave herself up entirely to the idea of wedded bliss with her new companion.

As the husband represented himself to be a wealthy fruit grower, the wife had no thought of there being anything wrong with his representations when he would borrow money from her. This was kept up for some time and practically the couple shared the lady's purse between them. This community of goods fitted in nicely with the husband's plans. One day he had the common purse with $500 in it in his possession. He and his wife were at dinner when a telephone call for him came. "I must go and see a man," said the cunning schemer in the time-honored phrase. "All right dear," answered the wife and sat down to wait. She is waiting still as far as the husband is concerned.

Finding that her unfaithful spouse never appeared, the unfortunate lady made inquiries far and wide for him without result. She even began to suspect that there might be something wrong about the marriage and that the faithless partner to the ceremony might have one, if not more, spouses elsewhere. The more she thought of the matter the more she became convinced that this was not the first time that the same game had been played by the man who called himself her husband.

Months passed but the lady found no trace of her spouse. Her health began to fail and she became an object of anxiety to her friends. Suddenly she took a resolution and making arrangements about her affairs set out for Montana on the trail suggested to her by the friendly Elk whom she met at the time of the convention. She is there now and should she manage to discover her husband there will be interesting developments, as the lady is no novice in the art of bringing delinquents to terms by means of the law courts.

PACIFIC SCHOOL P. T. A.

It is expected that there will be a very large attendance at the first meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of Pacific avenue school Thursday at 3 p. m. A very excellent literary and musical program has been arranged by Mrs. LeRoy Bosserman, chairman of program.

At 2:30 all are invited to attend the practice meeting of parliamentary law. This promises to be a lively time and a good way to become acquainted. Mrs. P. S. McNutt will be present.

At 3 will be the regular meeting consisting of reports of work planned by committees who have spent many happy hours together, getting them arranged.

Mrs. Packer, chairman of committee of the social half hour has arranged for refreshments in the lovely court of the school. Every one interested in child welfare welcome.

Mrs. A. Lucas Smith, 305 N. Adams street, has made application for membership in the Tuesday Afternoon club.

I am meeting a very large number of old friends and acquaintances in and around Lincoln and, of course, am pleased at their cordial reception. Lincoln is a beautiful residence city, one of the best in the middle west, I think, in a very fine agricultural country, and I am not ashamed of the fact that it was our home for about 15 years.

CZAR FERDINAND ISSUES DECLARATION THAT HOSTILITIES EXIST WITH SERBIA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
PARIS, Oct. 13.—Bulgaria formally declared war against Serbia, Tuesday. Czar Ferdinand has contrived to issue the usual statement that Bulgaria did not seek war, but was forced into it by Serbia. That country, he says, by its mobilization of troops near the Bulgarian frontier forced the declaration of war. The Servians, who have been at war for more than a year are laughing at this clumsy statement. Russia is prepared to land a big army on the Bulgarian coast.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

STUDENT BODY SENATORS TAKE OATH—GOOD DEBATING MATERIAL

Student Body Meeting
The second student body meeting of the term was held last Friday morning. The speaker of the house, George Dyer, presided. Miss Clyde Brooks was appointed temporary secretary. The meeting was an important one and a great deal of business was brought before the house. Herbert Sheuner read the report of the committee which was appointed to arrange the seating of the different classes. Every one was well satisfied except the Juniors who were honored with the rear seats in the house in the old study hall. Mr. Sheuner did his best to explain to every class that they were given the best seats in the house, but the Juniors didn't quite agree with him.

Mr. Moyle read a few parts of the constitution and gave a little talk on the athletic qualification cards. He said we should be careful before we signed our names to the statement saying that we did not smoke cigarettes nor drink intoxicating liquors. The next business was to give the senators the oath of office. The appointed senators are Walter Beach, '18, and Mervin Mills, '16. The elected senators are Robert Kolts, '16, Evangeline Hunchberger, '17, Aldine Norton, '16, Horace Lukins, '16, and Howard Stickney, '16. After being sworn into office the senators were asked to remain seated upon the stage. They wound their feet around the legs of their chairs and tried to look at ease during the remaining time. Ed Seay and Chauncey Kolts made announcements about the payment of the student body dues. A bill entitling the girls of the school to the use of one of the tennis courts was brought up and passed by the house. Harry Glazier led the first school yell of the year and the assembly made more noise than ever. The meeting adjourned.

New Absence Regulations
At the teachers' meeting Monday night a new regulation regarding absence was brought up. Hereafter a student whose absence excuse does not come under one of the four headings, sickness, sickness or death in the family, conditions under which reaching school would be impossible, or injurious to the health, such as a storm, any other urgent reason to be passed upon at the discretion of the teacher, will have his absence card marked with the word unnecessary. Each time the student presents such a card he will have two per cent taken off his quarterly grade. The regulation will create an orderly system in regard to absences, but it is very severe.

Senior Debating Tryouts
Three members of the team that won the debating banner last year will speak for 1916 again this year. The senior team will be Katherine Green, Joseph Meyer, Frank Bridgeford and Mervin Mills. The tryouts took place Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Root, Miss Fenton and Miss Terry acting as judges.

Student Body Dues
The Student Body dues are finally being paid up. The faculty have 100 per cent paid. The A3 class have 100 per cent paid and the seniors have 99 per cent paid. It is hoped that the student body will have 100 per cent paid before the end of the week. This year it will be absolutely impossible to get into any of the games held on our campus without showing the student body ticket or ten or twenty-five cents as the case may be.

Sweaters
The Sophomore girls are sporting some pretty green sweaters and caps this week. The sweaters have a white belt, white cuffs and a white band down the front. They are quite mild and subdued looking beside those zigzag striped sweaters of orange and black that some of the Junior boys are wearing. Such stripes are absolutely a strain upon the optic nerve.

Juniors
The Juniors say that they have come to the conclusion that they would like to see their numerals on the Faries' cup this year, so they have decided to take up basketball and tennis championships. Ed Heacock and L. Crandall are both in pretty good form so those scrubs better look out or maybe they'll get beaten. The Sophs and Seniors don't have to worry, however.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair to night and Thursday; west winds.

INCREASE IN BUILDING

J. M. BANKER SAYS OCTOBER OPENS WITH FINE PROSPECTS FOR DEVELOPMENT

"There is no doubt that there is an advance in the building program for Glendale since October came in," said Mr. J. M. Banker, city building inspector, to a representative of the Glendale Evening News. "September showed a marked advance over the summer months and over September of last year, but if October should keep up the pace with which it starts out it will be considerably in advance of September."

"I do not know if I would be justified in drawing any conclusions from these conditions as to any change in the general conditions throughout the country. I do feel certain that Glendale, however, is one of the places that responds very quickly to the changes that may be taking place in financial affairs all over the country."

"Property in this city has been held on the whole at a conservative price. The city has attracted to itself people of a substantial class and this center, while still feeling the effects of the national depression, has suffered much less from it than neighboring places. We find this October that O. L. Kilborn, 1319 Lomita avenue, has obtained a permit to erect a two-story frame building 34x35 on a 50x150 foot lot. The foundation of this building will be concrete, and the building will be modern throughout. The builder is Mr. M. A. Anderson. This is a substantial erection and will be a nice addition to the city. It will cost $3000.

Miss Susan M. Taggart, 1430 Hawthorne street, is about to erect the largest brick dwelling that has ever been built in Glendale. It will be one and a half stories, 32x34 feet. The lot is 50x125. This building will be put up at a cost of $2000.

Mrs. L. A. Teigh, 539 S. Olive street, Los Angeles, is to build two 4-room flats at a cost of $1500. Milton Hesse will put up two dwellings on 703-705 Lincoln avenue. These will be 5-room affairs and will cost $2000 each. Mrs. Irene J. McReynolds, 539 S. Central, plans a one-story building at 110 S. Kenwood street which will be erected by E. D. Yard. It will cost $2000.

"This indicates an increase that is very gratifying. It shows a strong contrast to the summer months and is an indication of further development. In addition to these buildings which are to be erected there are others of a minor grade that bring up the total of building permits to a point very considerably in advance of last year."

"In addition to this definite work there are reports of other work to be begun and I notice that we have quite a number of strangers from other states in our midst who are looking the situation over and a certain proportion of whom will settle here, either building new houses for themselves or purchasing old ones. There has been some turn over of property in this way recently and there is likely to be more."

Glendale is gradually getting a reputation outside itself as a fine and desirable residence city. The absence of all disagreeable elements and the presence of first-class schools seem to constitute a vast attraction to those who have families to educate and wish to bring them up in clean surroundings."

ATTENTION WISCONSIN!

Parties who consider Wisconsin their state are already sending in their names to the Glendale Evening News as requested in Monday's paper. Do not forget to send in your name and also the names of others whom you may know belonging to the same state. It will be interesting to you to know of those from your old home. Monday, Oct. 18, is Wisconsin day. On that day this paper will publish the names sent in. Don't let your state fall behind in the record. Tuesday, Oct. 19, will be Iowa day; Wednesday, Oct. 20, Indiana day; Thursday, Oct. 21, Pennsylvania day; Friday, Oct. 22, Missouri day; Saturday, Oct. 23, Illinois day. The days for other states will be announced later.

KANSAS PEOPLE PICNIC

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lyons of 232 S. Louise, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Lyons of 419 N. Maryland and J. C. Davis and family of 1471 Salem street were among the eighty former residents of Rice county, Kansas, who held a picnic and reunion at Long Beach yesterday. Honored guests at this happy affair were Mr. Frank E. Hoyt, editor of the Lyons Republican, and his family.

RUSSIA GROWING LIBERAL

There is no standing still in this world. What is not advancing is necessarily going back. Men and nations are either growing or dying. There is either life in them or they will soon be numbered with the dead. Russia is a comparatively young nation. She is young compared to other nations, and her government is still much of a very crude experiment. Bit by bit, however, she is winning her way toward a proper form of rule, and may work out that salvation ere long.

Anyway she is not standing still. Her people are mentally fresh and vigorous. They may be sometimes crude even as was their idol, Peter the Great, but like him they do things. This war in Europe, which has cost the country so much in blood and treasure is but a form of awakening for the nation. The leavening element that has so long been striving to put some ambition into the heart of the vast horde of peasants in Russia, laying down its life for that cause and suffering cruel torture and banishment and death rather than give up its ideal is still at work. Liberalism has made progress during the war. The disasters that have overtaken the Russian armies have wakened the soul of the people and have compelled the rulers to listen to their voice. The present struggle has released a vast crowd of liberal ideas which have been struggling for years against the cruel opposition of the bureaucracy.

When the war broke out the Czar was compelled to proclaim liberty and autonomy for Poland. He was forced to promise more liberal treatment for the Jews and for the brave people of Finland. Whatever may have been the intentions of the Czar and his bureaucracy in this matter there is no doubt that they will never be able to go back on the promises they have made. The Russian parliament has recorded those promises.

Of a surety the great bureaucracy, civil and religious, that has ruled Russia with a rod of iron, is not giving up its hold on the nation without a struggle. It has been manifest all through the war that the bureaucracy has been acting at times in direct opposition to the best interests of the land, and playing into the hands of the enemy. The recent decree of the Czar proroguing the parliament was a triumph of the reactionaries; but the very fact that popular sentiment forced the Czar some time previous to that event to call the дума together was a triumph for the democracy, which in spite of a thousand rebuffs is still keeping its place in the heart of the people.

Russia is loyal to its autocracy because it is ignorant. Education is the great need of the country. With education would come light and enlightenment under the rays of which no tyranny has ever been able to live. It would not be wonderful, as events move fast in these days, to see Russia in the course of a few years dismissing its autocracy and its bureaucracy and getting into the front rank of the nations.

WOMAN'S RECOGNITION AT HAND

There is every indication that the time is fast approaching when women will be permitted to take their stand along with men in every avenue of life. It is not that "woman's era is at hand." It is not that the time has come when women are to rule the earth. That would be just as great a tyranny as that which man has exercised over the race; but it is that man and woman are to stand on a platform of equal opportunity and work equally and faithfully for the elevation and advancement of the human race.

There are indications that President Wilson is gradually coming round to a point where he will be a powerful advocate of women's suffrage. There are indications that other men, more or less great, who at least occupy great places, are about to adopt a favorable attitude toward this, which is one of the great questions of the day.

Even in South America we find women coming to the front. Only the other day the New York papers chronicled the arrival in that city of a South American lady from Bogota as buyer for a merchandise house there. As far as she is concerned, she is probably the first swallow that only indicates the approach of summer. Yet even that is much. Woman may not be much politically in Colombia at present; but the very fact that a woman is intrusted with such a mission as that which this Colombian lady is managing, indicates that the time is not far off when others will enter similar fields and then the franchise will come.

SCHOOL BONDS AT LA CANADA

La Canada is one of the districts from which Glendale Union High School draws a certain number of its students. Glendale is therefore interested in all that tends to advance the welfare of that community and the development of educational facilities there. Naturally La Canada is itself much more interested in that development. To facilitate the evolution of the educational system there it is proposed to issue school bonds for $25,000 and erect a new school building.

Anyone who has seen the present school building is aware that it is entirely inadequate for the needs of a modern community. Children educated there will be handicapped when brought into contact with the products of other schools where the equipment is modern. La Canada needs a new school building and a modern system of education. The district itself is a desirable place to live in. Its climate is agreeable; its soil is fertile and its people prosperous. A flourishing community of this kind cannot afford to lag behind in so important a matter as school accommodation and equipment. Parties who are now resident in La Canada are seriously considering the advisability of moving from that center should the new school bonds not be carried at the election of October 26. In fact, the community's decision on this matter is of so much importance that the result will determine to a great extent La Canada's future.

One would think that there could not be a single soul in the district unaware of the benefit that would result to the community from having a modern school building and modern teaching methods. The burden of providing this great addition to the assets of the community is not great. The cost is $25,000. There is a taxable property list of $800,000. The first of the bonds does not become due for six years and the whole amount is strung out along thirty years.

Those who will have to pay up those bonds are not the people who are now opposing or supporting them. It will be the very children who are to get the benefit who will have to pay for it. Fifteen years and, even before that time, from now all those children will be self-supporting and will be in a position to assume this burden.

There should be no hesitation about voting the bonds. It is the only course before the community, if it is not to slump back into pristine non-development and remain an eyesore from an educational point of view among the rising and enterprising centers of life and progress by which it is surrounded.

THE PUBLIC WELFARE COMMISSION OF THE COUNTY OF LOS ANGELES AND THE COUNTY WELFARE ASSOCIATION

The Public Welfare Commission was created by Ordinance, and came into existence on April 28th, 1915.

This Commission has general oversight of the private and public charities and philanthropic institutions of Los Angeles County. It is permitted for boarding homes for children, nurseries, orphanages and the like; it investigates social and moral conditions wherever local authorities are lax or request assistance.

The following private institutions, receiving aid from the county for public service rendered, have been investigated and recommendations made to the Board of Supervisors:

Vance Working Boys' Club, Resthaven, Maternity Cottage, Los Angeles Humane Society, Los Angeles Orphans' Home, Pasadena Humane Society, Los Angeles Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

In all of these institutions thorough investigation has been made. Financial methods, comparative results, sociological survey, physical equipment have been under scrutiny by the members and employees of this Commission. In four of the seven changes have been suggested that are wide sweeping, making for economy and efficiency—basing our powers of coercion upon the condition of endorsement to the Honorable Board of Supervisors. Refusal to comply meant that this Commission would send report of disapproval of appropriation to the Supervisors.

We have found two notorious cases of child neglect in this county; one a home for about fifty children, the other for ten; in both cases the homes were closed, and in several cases this Commission itself has had the children placed in better surroundings.

We have under investigation seventy-two places throughout the county where children are being boarded, all of these requiring meticulous investigation and searching cross references before a permit can be issued. No record of these homes is to be had outside of this office. We have found children boarding in homes where syphilis is obvious, where immoral conditions are more than suspected, where sanitary conditions are atrocious; in others where the children were being exploited, and in many cases starved. In even the cases where permits have been refused, the attitude of this Commission has been so frank and friendly that enmity has not been aroused; the coercive method of supervision we have avoided.

In the case of the Colored Old Folks Home at ———, belonging to the ——— Conference, we have outlined a complete scheme of reorganization, which has been adopted in toto at the Conference in August, we are informed by the Secretary of that Conference.

In the matter of the ——— School for Mexican Children at ———, we are seeking to close the inadequate private school on the grounds, and urging the governing board to send the little Mexican girls to the American public school. We have sought the co-operation of the County Superintendent of Schools to that happy end.

We have assisted in the organization of the County Welfare Association, and a plan of co-operation and service arranged, so that several organizations will not be assisting the same cases, but the local associations will do much of the work of investigation and relief for the County Outdoor Relief Office, through funds furnish in part by the county. The President of the Charities Board of ———, writes that as a result of the help of the Superintendent of Charities and of this Office, for the first time, the City of ———, has made a place for outdoor relief in the city budget.

We are making a careful investigation of one psychopathic sanitarium outside the city, where sewage of an institution of fifty people was being pumped out upon open field. The County Health Officer was called upon to assist, and a satisfactory solution was arranged. No records of cause of commitment, date, or place from whence these mental patients were received, was on file until this Commission demanded that such record be kept.

We have proposed to Miss Gleason, County Librarian, that library of social service books be placed at the disposal of this office and that of the County Superintendent of Charities, for use by the County Welfare Association.

clation members as well as for visitors of the Outdoor Relief Department.

The Commission has visited the County Farm and Hospital, finding much to commend. Members of the Commission have visited both County and City jails, and after we have been allowed to make thorough investigation of the county institution, we shall make further report to the Board of Supervisors.

A request has come to this Commission from the Health Officer of the City of ———, asking assistance in correcting the alleged immoral or at least, pernicious social and sanitary conditions among a certain foreign element of that city. After the survey now being made is completed, the Commission will attempt a solution.

The problem of furnishing employment to the hosts of the unemployed is being worked upon, with a tentative solution in sight.

We are attempting to establish homes for boys and young men who are homeless, especially for the young man just out of an institution.

In short, the Public Welfare Commission is striving to protect children, to improve moral and sanitary conditions in the body politic, especially in small towns or country districts that are lacking adequate supervision of this sort. The Commission is, further, seeking to encourage new and needed forms of charity, to assist in remedying social ills referred to it, and all matters that pertain to the humane public welfare of the country are objects of interest and concern to this commission.

TEXAS FAIR ONES HAVE FAIR

The first annual Texas Woman's Fair opened at Houston yesterday with all the features that have gone to make up state fairs for the last half century—and a few new ones. The exhibits include poultry, fancy work, dairy products, orchard and garden products, etc. Several women's bands and orchestras furnish the music. Home economics and better babies will be prominent. The fair will close October 16.

HELP THE FIRE BOYS

Only a few days remain during which you can register your vote for the Glendale Fire Department in the great contest for the piano offered by the Southern California Music company. Go to the company's store, 316 Brand boulevard, and register your vote for the volunteer firemen of Glendale. No association deserves it more. Your vote will be a testimonial to the invaluable services the fire boys have rendered the city. It will give them courage and strength for future work. Nothing serves to hearten more a man who is doing his duty than the appreciation of the public. Don't wait until it is too late. Here is a chance to show what you think of the department. Go to the Southern California Music company's store and vote before the time is past. Contest closes Friday, Oct. 15, at 9 p. m.

There is no entrance fee. The votes are free. It costs nothing to register except the short time you spend in the store writing your name. Call the fire department, Glendale 31, for further information. Do not permit this opportunity to pass. It will be an easy and graceful method of testifying to the esteem in which you hold the fire department and your appreciation of their services. There are other organizations in the contest, but not one that is rendering the public service given by the volunteer fire department. Give the fire boys your vote. Help to infuse a little brightness into the long watches they put in at the firehouse. Winter is coming on. Let them have music to cheer them and give them—not courage for their duty, they have that—but the knowledge that those they protect are grateful.

PUBLIC WELFARE COMMISSION

There will be a meeting of the County Welfare Association in the Library Lecture hall, Metropolitan building, northwest corner of Fifth and Broadway, Los Angeles, Wednesday, October 13, at 2:30.

At this meeting there will be discussed methods of co-operation between the County Outdoor Relief Office and the local groups caring for the poor and distressed in each of the thirty-six municipalities of the county. The problem of the unemployed will be dealt with and the county rock pile will be explained.

MERCI!

A young lady sat next to a distinguished bishop at a church dinner. She was rather awed by the bishop's presence. For some time she hesitated to speak to him. Finally, seeing some bananas passed, she turned to him and said:

"I beg your pardon, but are you fond of bananas?"

The bishop was slightly deaf, and, leaning forward, replied:

"What did you say?"

"I said," repeated the young lady, blushing, "are you fond of bananas?"

The bishop thought for a moment and then said:

"If you want my honest opinion, I have always preferred the old-fashioned night shirt."

PERSONALS

Mrs. William Fowler of Riverside is a guest this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Quinch, 420 West Fifth street.

J. C. Davis and daughter arrived Monday from Lyons, Kansas, to join Mrs. Davis and family who had previously come to Glendale. The family is residing at 1471 Salem street and will remain here at least a year.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hyde Braly of 205 N. Brand boulevard entertained at a dinner party Tuesday evening, their guests including Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Braly of Pasadena and Dr. and Mrs. Herman Janss of Brentwood.

Mr. T. Ovington of Pomona, who is at present in Tropic in connection with Knights of Pythias business, of which order he is a prominent member, was a guest at dinner Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Davis, 515 Orange Grove avenue.

Mrs. J. P. Ritchie of West Fifth street has returned from a most delightful trip of several days to San Diego and the Panama California exposition. A trip over into Tia Juana was also one of the pleasures of the visit.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. C. Moore, now residing at 116 W. Fifth street, have acquired a new residence at 1543 Salem street. The new house is a nice bungalow, finished and furnished in latest style. The Moores expect to move in Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cohn and infant daughter Elsa of 110 Orange street returned the first of the week from Oakland, California, where they had spent five weeks guests of Mrs. Cohn's parents. While there they made many visits to the exposition at San Francisco.

Mr. A. T. Davis, 515 Orange Grove avenue, had a narrow escape from serious injury or even death Monday when he was knocked down by an auto at the corner of Brand and Tropic avenue. As it was he suffered a bad cut on the head and sustained cuts on his arms and legs. He is getting along all right now.

Mrs. Frank Grosnevor, 1421 Burchett street, and Mrs. C. E. Lauer, 1427 Burchett street, are invited guests to the luncheon to be given Wednesday to the Women's Card club by Mrs. Alice McCarty, 2407 West boulevard, Los Angeles. The luncheon will be served at noon and the afternoon will be spent in a pleasant card game and in other amusements.

Mr. S. L. Borthick and daughter, Miss Ruby Borthick, have returned from a pleasant visit of several weeks, which was enjoyed in San Francisco attending the Panama-Pacific exposition, visiting the many places of interest in and around San Francisco and also visiting in Porterville, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Borthick. Mr. Frank Borthick is a young son of S. L. Borthick, who has been residing in Porterville for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Glenwood Jones, 715 Central avenue, returned Monday from a very enjoyable trip to the Yosemite valley and San Francisco. They made the trip by auto, going to Madera and thence by the Wawona road to the Yosemite. They have much to say in praise of the new hotel, Bessmond's, which is close to the Yosemite Falls. They were also charmed with the valley itself. From Yosemite they went on to San Francisco, enjoying the fine roads. Coming back from San Francisco they encountered bad roads from Tehachapi south.

F. Booth, the coffee king, has wagered his title and estate in England, to Mr. Phelan of Burchett St. that Mr. Booth in the next ten years will sell the bulk of the coffee sold in California. The estate comprises half of the property of a town in England the size of Los Angeles. The title Mr. Phelan is welcome to as it will likely give him the headache. At present Mr. Booth says he is selling more high grade coffee than all the stores of Glendale and Tropic combined. To meet his increased business he is installing an auto delivery service this week.

COAST MASONS OFFER THIRD DEGREE DRAMA

Hundreds of California Masons today attended the 66th annual communication of the Grand Lodge, California jurisdiction, at the San Francisco exposition. FOOTBALL CLUB

The Football club will meet on Friday afternoon at the McMillan home on Mountain street, Mrs. W. W. Stone and Mrs. McMillan being the hostesses. The announcement previously made that the meeting would be held at La Ramada was an error.

NORTH GLENDALE

Mrs. Edward Gibson of Valley View road returned last Saturday evening from San Francisco where she with a party of relatives from Los Angeles spent a delightful week attending the exposition and sightseeing generally.

Mr. Frank Owen has rented one of the Hammond Lumber company's houses located at 1629 Ruth street, having come here from Riverside county and with his family has moved in.

Mr. Lester W. Ward has leased his property located on Dryden street to parties from Fresno, Cal., and with his family will spend the winter in Los Angeles.

Miss Ella Steele of 1528 Lorraine street spent the week end in Westgate, Cal., where she was the guest of Mrs. C. R. Thompson.

Mrs. M. E. Brown and daughter, Mrs. R. D. Jones, of 908 Dryden St., entertained in honor of Miss Nan Brown, who celebrated her birthday last Monday with a beautifully appointed dinner party. Covers were laid for nine and the guests who enjoyed the delightful affair included Mrs. J. W. Scott of Bloomington, Ill., who is spending the winter in Los Angeles; Mrs. J. Davis of Santa Ana, Mrs. Covey and Mrs. J. H. Hull of Los Angeles and Mrs. M. E. Brown, Mrs. R. D. Jones, Miss Martha Jones, Mr. R. D. Jones and the charming honoree, Miss Nan Brown of North Glendale.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haig of 1008 San Rafael street will be very glad to learn that their little daughter Miss Dorothy, who is now at Dr. Thompson's hospital in Burbank, having suffered a mental breakdown due to overstudy, is reported as being some better although in a very serious condition.

MUSIC SECTION

The music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club will meet Saturday afternoon at the home of the curator, Mrs. E. W. Kinney, instead of on Friday afternoon as was previously announced. The meeting is open to all club members.

MOTHERS' CLUB TO MEET

What is certain to prove a most interesting and instructive meeting will take place in Tropic when the first gathering of the Mothers' club of the Mariposa street school is held on Friday at 3 p. m. in the school. Dr. C. C. Noble will give an informative lecture on "Preservation of Teeth." Mrs. Meager will please the society by some of her dramatic reading. All are invited and a pleasant social time will be enjoyed.

THE ABOMINABLE FORD

Supreme Medical Examiner J. W. Cunningham and Director F. C. Joslyn are ford fans. Just what Worth Joslyn traded for his car we do not know, but we don't see him sporting his Ingersoll any more. Doc had two fords, but one of them got smashed up. He tied his dog to it one night, and the dog saw a rabbit.

At every meeting of the board of directors of the order Doc and Fred get together for mutual consolation. At the last meeting Doc said to Fred:

"I see that the much-advertised ford is mentioned in the Bible."

"Where?" asked the man from Oshkosh.

"The Good Book says, 'And Elijah went up to heaven on high, and I'll leave it to you, Fred.'"

"I know. The ford is the only car that could make it on high."

TROPICO

Miss Regina Bacon has been appointed superintendent of the Tropico playgrounds and as Miss Bacon is so popular with the children she is meeting with much success in her new field of labor. Miss Hill, principal of the Park avenue school, has very generously offered to co-operate with Miss Bacon as has Miss Amy Bowerfind of the Cerritos school, who has volunteered to assist Miss Bacon each Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Bacon is arranging a girls' basketball team which will play their initial game Friday on the municipal playground. It has been decided to make as strong a team as possible and girls are being selected from the Cerritos and Park avenue schools.

Sunday's ball game gives promise of being a closely contested one as the Tropico team will cross bats with the Harlow cafe team.

There was a most interesting meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist Episcopal church in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon at which Mrs. M. E. Cole, president of the society, presided.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Von Wahlde of Acacia street, who have been spending the past four months at their former home in Cincinnati, Ohio, visiting relatives and friends, will arrive in Tropic shortly, having left for California Tuesday.

Mrs. Eustace Benton Moore, president of the Tropico Parent-Teacher association, is arranging for an evening's entertainment to be given in the near future.

PIANO RECITAL

A full house greeted Miss Maud Salisbury on the occasion of her second annual piano recital at the First Baptist church Sunday evening. The choice of selections was sufficiently varied to sustain the program and was evidently arranged with a view to impressive climax. That the emotions awakened by contemplation of nature can be so wonderfully registered in the soul of the gifted artist and transferred with immaculate technique to a mechanical instrument is further proof of the divinity of human nature. The water lily silent in its liquid bed of green seemed near enough to touch as with graceful measures the talented artist interpreted the sacred pond. The critic melted into reverie of what must be the satisfaction of the soul capable of such feeling and expression.

"Thou that singest wheat and woodland,

Tilth and vineyard, hive and horse and herd;

All the charm of all the muses

Often flowering in a lonely word,

"Tennyson to Virgil."

The usual informal reception to Glendale's gifted artist followed the program of the evening.

Miss Salisbury was sustained by Mrs. C. H. Cunningham, soloist, Messrs. Cunningham and Baun, duetists, and the members of the Baptist choir.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The members and friends of the Christian church are highly pleased with Evangelist B. C. Hagerman and his singing evangelist, Mrs. G. W. Miller. Each sermon is better than the previous one and Mrs. Miller is a splendid singer and song leader.

The people of Glendale need the messages that Mr. Hagerman is giving. Come and be strengthened and inspired by these services.

Subject this evening, "The Divine Plan of Life." The special music numbers are mighty helpful and enjoyed by all.

PROMINENT SPEAKER TO DISCUSS PROPOSED ALTERATIONS OF CONSTITUTION

Much interest is being taken in Glendale in the proposed alterations to the constitution and it has been arranged that on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19, at the Glendale union high school at 8 p. m. the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher associations, through their educational committee, will offer to the public a group of excellent, thoroughly informed speakers who will discuss what seems to be the most important of the amendments to be voted upon Oct. 26. As this will be the only open mass meeting in Glendale on the amendments before the election and as the speakers are men of affairs and have given the questions serious thought the evening will be one of profit to those who desire to vote intelligently. No admission will be charged and the public are very cordially invited to attend.

Senator H. Stanley Benedict will speak in favor of the direct primary law, while Assemblyman Harry E. Chamberlin will take the negative. Senator William E. Brown will speak for rural credits (measure 5) and Senator N. W. Thompson will speak favorably for number 9, taxation. It is expected that speakers will be secured for the negative of these amendments, in which case their names will be announced later.

VALLEY NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Jones of Vine and Central arrived at home Monday from a two weeks' auto trip to San Francisco, Sacramento, Yosemite and other California points of interest. On the return trip, as they were entering Boquet canyon, a big National car, occupied by two apparently intoxicated young men, came up at high speed and though they turned out as far as possible to allow them to pass, the big car, guided by unsteady hands, struck the smaller machine in passing and nearly threw it down the precipice. Though the car was considerably damaged, Mr. and Mrs. Jones managed to get home in it. The authors of the mishap stayed not to help, but sped on at top speed.

People residing along Colorado street and Central avenue are asking "Why is ordinance 222?" They see many times a day autos and motorcycles driven by Glendale people roar by the warning signs at from 20 to 30 miles an hour, with mufflers wide open. Monday evening two autos started east on Colorado from Brand and raced apparently to Adams at high speed with mufflers open all the time, and then raced back. This was between 7 and half past. On a recent Sunday morning 18 motorcycles were counted passing along Colorado bound west just at Sunday school time, and 16 of them had their cut outs open. If any attempt is made to enforce ordinance 222 the three streets named should be attended to first.

Chas. E. Evans and wife, who lived in Glendale for eight years, then moved to Santa Monica to spend the summer, have returned to Glendale and now live at 1510 West Seventh.

EAGLE ROCK

Another petition containing names of citizens favoring annexation was presented to the city council Monday evening. The same parties had petitions circulating before, but when presented before the board were found to be void in conforming to the law. Many who signed the petition before did not sign this one.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid met this week Thursday at the home of Mrs. C. C. Miller on North Peyton avenue. It was a very busy meeting as new officers were elected and plans for the new year were discussed.

Our citizens are rejoicing over the fact that city taxes are the lowest they've been for two years.

The Eagle Rock Boy Scouts have sent an invitation to President Wilson asking him to visit our city should he come to California to attend both expositions.

Mrs. W. S. Moe and daughter Olive spent a few days last week in Los Angeles visiting the former's mother, Mrs. La Verna House, and sister, Mrs. F. Hammer.

All of the young people of the M. E. church were sadly disappointed when they learned that Mr. Smith would not return to Eagle Rock. During the time he was here Rev. Smith did a most wonderful work in building up the church and the membership increased greatly. It just seemed Mr. Smith belonged to Eagle Rock and his return to this city was almost certain as the church members unanimously petitioned for his return. Mr. Smith was highly respected by all the young people in this valley who knew him as well as the old, and he leaves a large circle of friends in all the local churches who shall miss him, but wish him success in his field at Chatsworth.

The choir members will hold a farewell party on their regular meeting night, this Friday, for Mr. Smith, who has taken up the pastorate at Chatsworth. He was an honorary member of this choir and will be greatly missed.

Mrs. Monroe of Adams avenue is attending the San Francisco fair.

The O. F. F. club has resumed its regular season of enjoyment and held the opening meeting at Miss Hustis' home on West Mariposa avenue and the next meeting was held at Miss Casey's home on Ellenwood drive last Saturday evening.

A. A. House returned last week from the Hollywood sanitarium. His health has been much benefited.

A question has come before the board of public utilities which appears a hard one to settle. Recently a tenant of the Mount Washington hotel left, leaving an unpaid water bill. A charge of $60 was made against the hotel company by the water company and the water is shut off, leaving the hotel without service. The hotel company has appealed to the board and has cited the ruling of the state railroad commission that the owner of a building cannot be held responsible for a debt incurred by a tenant. The Eagle Rock Water company contends that the owner of the property must pay the bill.

Mrs. Wm. Nichols of the Monte Vista apartments is entertaining her sister, Mrs. W. H. Baldrige of Escondido. Mrs. Baldrige is a delegate to the P. E. O. convention.

NEW HAVEN TRIAL

WILLIAM ROCKEFELLER AND OTHERS CHARGED WITH CONSPIRACY

Arraignment (preliminary to the government's trial) of William Rockefeller, Theodore N. Vail, Robert M. Taft, Lewis Case Ledyard, James S. Hemingway, George F. Baker, Henry K. McHarg and other nationally-known financiers and lawyers charged with criminally conspiring as directors and counsel to unlawfully control New England transportation through the New Haven railroad began in U. S. district court today.

Probably never in any courtroom in this country has such a distinguished coterie of financial, social and commercial leaders gathered to defend themselves from criminal charges drawn in an indictment against them by their own government.

William Rockefeller (alleged conspiracy leader) is John D. Rockefeller's brother and one of the wealthiest men in America. Theodore N. Vail is president of the American Telephone & Telegraph company. Hemingway is an Indiana politician. Ledyard was the late J. P. Morgan's personal counsel. McHarg is a southern capitalist. Baker is a New York banker and Morgan house partner. T. DeWitt Cuyler is a Philadelphia capitalist. Francis T. Maxwell is a Hartford capitalist.

Others named in the indictment are: George MacCulloch Miller, Chas. F. Brooker, D. Newton Barney, Chas. M. Pratt, A. Heaton Robertson, Frederick F. Brewster, Edward D. Robbins, John J. Billard, Edward Mulligan.

Alexander Cochrane, Boston capitalist, is indicted, but the case against him may fall at today's hearing.

William Skinner, silk baron of Holyoke, and James S. Elton, Waterbury, Conn., banker, were indicted, but the charges were quashed because their interstate commerce commission testimony immunized them.

These are the capitalists and lawyers a federal grand jury has declared probably guilty of plundering and wrecking the New Haven road. They will appear before Judge William A. Hunt and admit or deny the charges. Pleas of not guilty and a long-drawn trial are expected.

Prison terms and heavy fines for Rockefeller, Vail, Baker and their associates constitute the government's punishment if the defendants are proved guilty.

The government will attempt to show that they, as directors and counsel for directors of the New Haven, violated the conspiracy clause of the Sherman anti-trust law by conspiring to pyramid the road's finances and, through buying up the Boston & Maine and other rail lines, gained unlawful control of New England's transportation.

Disclosures at the time the road's affairs were investigated showed that millions of dollars of small investor's money were bandied about and juggled into such a financial tangle that it took expert investigators many months to get at the bottom of the affair.

Widows, orphans, small landholders and other, small investors, particularly in New England, who had sunk all their life savings in New Haven stock, which they had grown to consider an almost infallible financial institution, found themselves, when the investigation finally concluded, either poor, paupers or deep in debt.

Ledyard, Pratt, Brooker, McHarg, Brewster and Cochrane asked and were denied separate trials.

Baker, Cuyler, Vail, Maxwell and Mulligan were granted a separate trial with William Rockefeller, alleged to have been the moving spirit in the so-called "New Haven conspiracy."

All the defendants, however, will be arraigned today.

J. WHITCOMB RILEY

Your birthday, yes, I know it's true,
Thou Hoosier poet Riley.
And I would like to think of you
And speak of you more highly.

But you are the man I must abuse
In story I am telling.
For you have robbed me of my dues,
My record in good spelling.

At spelling bee in Illinois
In eighteen hundred forty,
Down went each hopeful girl and boy
Of the whole spelling party.

And down, too, both the teachers
Went
As by a whirlwind smitten,
It was a notable event
In early records written.

And so it was for many years,
With ease each prize to win it,
Till Riley's poetry appears,
And then I wasn't in it.

His misspelled words and catchy
Rhymes
On sentiment advancing,
Oh, I have wished a thousand times
They were not so entrancing.

But to this tale the truth belongs,
And here the truth I'm telling,
I greatly loved your misspelled songs
But they have spoiled my spelling.

Chicago dry for one day only goes to show the possibility of the alleged impossible, and serve to put the Sunday soakers in line for the inevitable. "A dead law for 40 years," they exclaim. There can be no dead law while on the statute books, and Mayor Thompson having sworn to enforce the law will be upheld in enforcing that one. The liquor lords dare not disobey as they did 44 years ago. The only remedy is to repeal the law and if the present legislature was called in special session it is doubtful if they would dare repeal that old and musty law.

The board of education of Los Angeles has given consent under which all school children when properly escorted may during a stated date in November visit the mission play at reduced rates generously offered by the author, the board believing a good educational lesson could be learned by the children. This action of the board invites criticism. Why not let the parents arrange for the outside religious lessons of the children, reduced rates also.

In many instances the mission would be correct that it is "some other call they heard" instead of a call to preach the gospel while in other cases the call may have been legitimate but the case in Illinois where an ex-minister concluded he was not "making money enough," sidestepped and took other work at a good salary. Last month he gladly entered conference again, a wiser and a happier man.

Social clubs, which are but substitutes for saloons in many cases, are having a hard time of it even down in Florida. No longer can a club membership in by package, load up his club locker and go on doing business as usual. One club held a meeting to invent some method of evading the law and invited the sheriff who plainly told them if they violated the law they would be promptly arrested.

The brilliant talented minister of the gospel who fills the pulpit once occupied by Henry Ward Beecher, the Tabernacle, Dr. N. D. Hillis, is having an experience just now out of which all will wish him quick and complete delivery. Not satisfied with preaching, lecturing and authorship and desiring to get rich faster, he entered the field of speculation with the usual results, disaster. Humbled in spirit he has made due apology and will undoubtedly be a wiser man.

A well-known politician of the state, who as a party nominee for a state office expected to be elected by 200,000 votes (in round numbers) was defeated by that number, is so in love with the value of party nomination and party methods that he is actually making speeches for party dominance of the older type without which the republic will die. One would think from the drubbing party tactics gave him that he would be on the other side, but it matters not, he has gone into the political scolding camp, none caring to hear him.

Public men belong to the public, and while President Wilson might be glad to cultivate privacy to a greater extent than at present he is more apt to get more in the limelight than less by movements close in front of him. Applause yet ringing over his recent indorsement of woman suffrage, a greater shout of approbation comes in with act of his not far in the future when he shall certify for the second time in his life "it is not good for man to be alone."

About the funniest yoke of co-laborers to a common end to be found in the state at this time is that of the Prohibitionists and liquor men working in complete harmony to preserve party in state affairs. The whisky trust never had any party beyond the party that would serve it, and the Prohibitionists could put a thousand candidates in the field for any or all the state, city and county offices without using the party name.

RULES FOR WOMEN AT HOME

1. Leave your lights burning when you are not at home at night.
2. Protect your property with burglar alarms. Get good ones.
3. Don't forget that the crook is a gibbering coward in the light.
4. A porch light will often scare a burglar out of the neighborhood.
5. Don't leave your curtains up when the shadows of evening fall.
6. Don't keep large sums of cash in the house. Crooks know it.
7. Don't invite thieves by leaving valuable jewelry scattered about.
8. Above all, don't forget the light. Roosevelt once told me, "One light's as good as one policeman."
9. Don't leave door keys anywhere on or near the porch.
10. And last of all—don't forget to have plenty of light at night.

Do not believe all you hear, especially if the reports be evil. False reports circulate more readily than true ones. Why it is thus is difficult to explain.

VALLEY PEOPLE MEET

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT MEETING OF LA CANADA IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

The bi-weekly meeting of the La Canada Improvement association was held in the La Canada hall Saturday evening, October 9. The attendance was large and the interest manifested was more than usual. The meeting was called to order by the president, E. H. Brooks, who after making a few introductory remarks called upon the secretary to read the minutes of the preceding meeting. The minutes being read and approved the committee who had been appointed to revise the constitution and by laws of the association made their report. The articles and by laws as prepared by this committee were read by the secretary and after the reading were, on motion, adopted without any changes being made. Chairman Brooks spoke very forcibly about the importance of the name of the association. He thinks the word improvement as used in the name is a very significant word and should mean much to all of the members. He reminded those present that it should be the desire of everybody in all avocations of life to make an improvement in whatever is being done. Chairman Brooks also emphasized the fact that the La Canada Improvement association should be an association of sociability among the members. He said this side of the life of a community is too often neglected and thus the people neglect to get the benefits that may be derived from mingling together.

The program was opened by a vocal solo by Mr. William Metzger. Mr. Metzger is a resident of La Canada and is possessed of a very musical voice. So well did he please the audience that he was forced to respond to an encore.

Mr. Edwin Cooper in a few very well chosen words discussed the question of the loan United States capitalists have made to France and England. From this gentleman's viewpoint it is perfectly right that this loan should be made for it is a well-known fact that Germany has been favored in receiving large amounts of borrowed money from capitalists of the United States and if it is right for one nation to be thus favored it is equally right for another. Mr. Cooper said it is proposed that this entire loan be paid in grain and other products from the United States and this being the case the United States should be greatly benefited by the transaction. He said that he, like many others, would not approve of a loan being made merely for the purpose of continuing the war. He mentioned that Jim Hill of railroad fame has been buying German bonds for some time although there has not been much said about his doing this in the papers.

Mr. James Patten, a young attorney of Los Angeles, greatly entertained the audience with several clever Scotch impersonations, including songs. Mr. Patten was so proficient in his art that he thoroughly captivated his hearers and he received enthusiastic applause.

Mr. Robert Horne under the heading of current events, related a very interesting incident concerning the large automobile that was recently built in New York and is at present making a trip across the continent. The size of the body of the car is 21 feet by 7 1/2 feet with a height of 6 1/2 feet. It contains three compartments, one to serve as a kitchen, another as a sleeping room and another to serve as a living room. It is equipped with all modern improvements and conveniences, even having in operation an electric fan. The wheel base of the car is 206 inches. Mr. Horne's description was given in a very logical manner and those present gained information that they probably had not had before.

Mr. R. W. Ready suggested that since there is to be a state election October 26 and since on the ballot there are many propositions to be voted for or against about which the average person knows but little at present, that Senator Carr be invited to be present at the next meeting of the association for the purpose of explaining the different questions which will appear on that ballot. The chair announced that if there were no objections himself and Mr. Ready would serve as a committee to interview Senator Carr and if possible secure him to explain these various questions as recommended by Mr. Ready. The chair stated that upon the evening referred to Mr. Bachmann, who is the manager of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber yard at Montrose, has the arranging of the program at the next meeting and it will be necessary to confer with him that a place may be kept vacant on the program for Senator Carr.

Mr. Cooper brought up the question of the association making preparations for a float to be entered at the tournament of roses in Pasadena next January 1. On motion the members were permitted to vote on the question as to whether they wish to enter a float at Pasadena on the date above mentioned. The vote was unanimous in favor of a float at the Pasadena Tournament of Roses. A motion prevailed that Mrs. Max Green and Mr. Brooks, the chairman, serve as a committee to appoint a second committee whose duty it will be to arrange for and prepare a suitable float. The secretary was instructed to procure cards and send them to all members of the association notifying them of the date of the next meeting which is to be held Saturday evening, October 23, inviting them to be present to hear a good program and to hear Senator Carr if he can be secured for this meeting.

MILLIONS FOR AGED MINISTERS

Superannuated Methodist Episcopal ministers ought to have about $15,300,000 to divide among themselves to "live in comfort," thinks the Baltimore conference of that church—so it started today to get it for them.

The conference points out that the church which sees its aged workers cared for, can face "the world, the flesh and the devil."

Conventions for the subscription of this fund today are being held in Washington, Baltimore, Frederick, Hagerstown, Cumberland and Frostburg, Md., and Martinsburg and Keyser, W. Va. Retired M. E. ministers now receive $11 for each year of service. Under the new fund they will get $15, or their widows, $7.50.

When a man in good health ceases to have any work to perform in this world it is time for him to pass on and give the space he occupies to others.

DISCUSS PUBLIC UTILITIES

Valuation of public utilities, especially railroads, was discussed at San Francisco by the second annual convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners today. Every utility commission in the country is attempting to solve this problem.

The Interstate Commerce Commission is represented by Judson G.

Clements, Professor E. W. Bemis and Joseph W. Folk.

Delegates to the convention include leading railroad, gas, water, electric, telephone and telegraph corporation chiefs of the United States and Canada.

AUCTIONS GAS AND OIL

Bids were opened at Oklahoma City, Okla., yesterday for oil and gas leases on school lands in this state. The tracts include twelve in Lincoln County, two each in Stephens, Pottawatomie and Kay Counties, and one in Pawnee County. The royalty is fixed at one-eighth, with such bonuses as the bidder may offer.
